

Teaching Scholar Fellow Recipients
Summer 2007

Abdalla Battah (Political Science/Law Enforcement)

Teaching About the Middle East in Minnesota Secondary Schools

Brandon Cooke (Philosophy)

Exploitative Art

Christopher Corley (History)

Research and Writing Time in Support of "The Daily Life of Children and Youth in History," A Non-Fiction Book Manuscript

James Dimock (Speech Communication)

Creating a MSU Student Run Summer Workshop for Regional Forensics Students

Gretchen Haas (English)

Project Management Education and Course Development

Lori Ann Lahlum (History)

The "Vanishing" Milkmaid? Norwegian Women, American Agriculture, and Norwegian-American Agricultural Gender Roles on the Northern Prairies and Plains, 1850-1920

Liz Miller (Art)

Drawing on the Wall: Sol Lewitt's Legacy

Marshel Rossow (Mass Communications)

The Job World: It's Waiting Out There, But Are My Students Ready? (A look at pre-hiring examinations and other hiring practices and expectations in the print-media industry)

Warren Sandmann (Speech Communication)

Instructional Communication: Developing the Textbook and Creating the Class

Qun Zhang (Electrical and Computer Engineering and Technology)

Development of Graphic User Interface (GUI) Based Computer Modeling and Design Platform to Promote Interactive Learning in Fiber Optic Communications