

Summer 2014 Teaching Scholar Fellowship Recipients

Laura Schwarz (Nursing)

Using Technology and QM to Teach Holistic Nursing in NURS 382

Mika Laidlaw (Art)

Traditional vs. Contemporary Japanese Art: Paradoxes of Old, New, East, West, Tradition and Change

Matthew Loayza (History)

Developing D2L Teaching Modules to Improve Historical Research and Writing Skills

Cherie Pettitt (Human Performance)

Development and Implementation of Anti-Racism Training and Intercultural Competence Student Learning Outcomes to Enhance Study Abroad

Nancyruth Leibold (Nursing)

A Virtual Conflict Management Learning Lab for Nursing Students

Yea-Ling Tsao (Mathematics and Statistics)

Designing Hands-On Activity Modules for Mathematics to Improve Student Learning

Queen Booker (Management)

Creating Personal Learning Environments: A Redesign of Management 330-01 (A Large Online Course)