BIOL 483: MAX Scholar Seminar (co-listed as ME/CIVE 493, MATH 493, and CS 493)

Course Description: This class provides MAX scholars with an opportunity to explore a set of topics related to achieving success in academic, professional and personal realms. Speakers will include faculty, graduate students, visiting researchers and industry members as well as student participants. Students will be required to participate in mentoring of lower division MAX scholarship recipients and provide written and oral presentations of various topics during the semester.

1.5 seminar hours per week, offered in Fall and Spring semesters.

Pre-requisites: Recipient of a MAX scholarship or instructor consent.

Proposed Text: Readings appropriate to chosen topics will be assigned.

Schedule of Topics:

Topics relevant to personal and professional development in academia, research and future work in industry will be organized at the beginning of each semester.

Student Outcomes:

In this course, the students will:

- be supported in maintaining their scholarship requirements of a minimum GPA and independent work overseen by a faculty or industry mentor,
- learn about possible career paths in the fields represented by the scholarships,
- be part of a peer and mentor community,
- gain experience presenting information about their internship and research work,
- mentor lower division MAX scholarship recipients,
- provide written and oral presentations on seminar topics,
- learn about presentation forms, and
- represent the program in outreach events organized during the seminar.

In addition, the students will gain:

- an understanding of professional and ethical responsibility,
- an ability to communicate effectively,
- a recognition of the need for, and an ability to engage in life-long learning,
- a knowledge of time budgeting and management, and
- an understanding of the need of community involvement through volunteerism.

Required Resources & Departmental Staffing

Resources to support this course will come from a National Science Foundation grant to provide scholarships for the students taking the class.

Staffing resources to support this course will result from allocation of existing department resources and with the support of the College of Science Engineering and Technology for development of the MAX Scholar Program.

RE: BIOL 283/483, CS 293/493, MATH 293/493, ME/CIVE 293/493

This set of classes is being presented as a group. The proposed seminar will be offered in order to meet the student services described in the National Science Foundation scholarship grant that will begin supporting students next fall. The catalog description, list of topics and student outcomes are the same for BIOL 283/483, C S 293/493, MATH 293/493, ME/CIVE 293/493. All have been individually approved within their departments but will be offered as a single seminar for recipients of MAX Scholarships. If there are any questions about this particular set of courses, please feel free to contact me at bates@mnsu.edu or 389-5587.

Thank you.
