Dear Alumni,

From ancient castles and Georgian mansions to rugged highlands and scenic islands, experience some of the British Isles’ most picturesque cities and landscapes. Depart London for Scotland’s lovely capital, Edinburgh, and see the medieval castle that dominates its skyline. Sail to Invergordon and experience the untamed beauty of the Scottish Highlands, followed by the Orkney Islands, where some of Britain’s best-preserved prehistoric monuments reside. Take in the dramatic scenery of the Isle of Skye, where the oldest inhabited castle awaits, before heading to Belfast in Northern Ireland, a city filled with splendid Victorian and Edwardian buildings. Next stop is Dublin, Ireland’s cosmopolitan capital, where you can see the magnificent Book of Kells at Trinity College; then onward to Waterford, the city renowned throughout the world for its crystal, and Cork, a picturesque city of bridges and quays built around the River Lee. Before concluding your journey in the magical city of Paris, discover the rich seafaring history of Fowey, the British town where St. Catherine’s Castle offers beautiful panoramas overlooking the sea.

A voyage with Oceania Cruises is an incredible experience that redefines living on the water. By combining elegance and luxury with exceptional intimacy and warmth, the 684-passenger Nautica offers every indulgence imaginable. This map represents approximate locations.
EDINBURGH (LEITH), SCOTLAND One of Europe’s most attractive cities, Edinburgh is a marvelous mix of elegant streets, charming squares and quaint alleyways. The city’s most distinctive landmark is Edinburgh Castle, set high up on a craggy cliff in the center of the city.

INVERGORDON, SCOTLAND Invergordon, a seaport in northern Scotland, has long been recognized for its rich naval history. Northern Scotland, known as the Highlands, is one of the most scenic places in Europe, a landscape of mountains and forested hills. Venture into the Highlands where the local clan castles perch on rugged hills.

KIRKWALL (ORKNEY ISLANDS), SCOTLAND Kirkwall is the principal harbor town and capital of the Orkney Islands. Steep-roofed stone houses line streets that wind around the medieval St. Magnus Cathedral. Consider a visit to the nearby ruins of the Earl’s Palace and the earlier Bishop’s Palace. Other ancient attractions around this starkly beautiful island include the enigmatic Standing Stones of Stennes and the Stone Age village of Skara Brae, discovered with furniture and indoor drains preserved.

PORTREE (ISLE OF SKYE), SCOTLAND Portree, the enchanting capital of the Isle of Skye on Scotland’s west coast, is a scenic harbor town fringed with cliffs. One of the town’s attractions is the Aros Centre which celebrates the island’s Gaelic heritage. Other highlights are Dunvegan Castle, a fortress stronghold that has been home to the MacLeods since the 13th century and is believed to be the oldest inhabited castle in Britain.

BELFAST, NORTHERN IRELAND Discover this city of ornate Victorian and Edwardian architecture, gracious gardens and friendly pubs. Or see the natural phenomenon of the Giants’ Causeway, a stunning geological anomaly of tightly packed, uneven basalt columns disappearing into the sea.

DUBLIN, IRELAND Cosmopolitan Dublin is the capital and largest city in Ireland. Visit historic Trinity College and see the magnificently decorated Book of Kells. Tour majestic St. Patrick’s Cathedral, where Jonathan Swift is buried, and stroll through lovely St. Stephen’s Green, a picturesque city park immortalized by James Joyce in Ulysses.

WATERFORD, IRELAND Waterford is the oldest and fifth largest city in Ireland. Stroll through this 1,100-year-old Viking city and see its most recognizable landmark, Reginald’s Tower. Visit the Waterford Crystal Visitors’ Centre and see how the artisans once cut their famous designs. Or enjoy the beautiful Irish countryside as you pass majestic abbey ruins, wander through quaint villages and see remnants of Viking heritage.

CORK (COBH), IRELAND Cheerful Cork sprawls along the River Lee in one of Ireland’s most stunning settings. Bridges crisscross the city leading to landmarks like St. Anne’s Church and the Old City Gaol, where you’ll see the 19th-century prisoners’ graffiti. Consider traveling to Blarney Castle to kiss the legendary Blarney Stone.

Shore excursions are not included. In each port of call you may select from a variety of optional shore excursions for an additional charge, some of which are referenced in the descriptions above.

Go Next will offer a unique collection of Oceania Cruises shore excursions; available for purchase approximately 4 months prior to departure.
