Deployment Checklist: Minnesota State University, Mankato

1. Inform instructors. If possible, make a copy of any documentation. By law a military member has the following options (www.revisor.leg.state.mn.us/statutes/?id=192.502).
   a. Withdraw from courses with full refund.
   b. Take a grade of “incomplete” and be allowed to complete the course upon release from active service.
   c. Continue and complete the course for full credit through distance learning by the end of the current term as agreed to by instructor.
   d. At the instructor’s discretion you may finish the course early and be given the grade currently earned in the course.

2. Inform advisor and/or academic department. Make sure key individuals know of your deployment. Ask if they require any leave of absence paperwork.

3. Financial aid- if you use financial aid check to see how stopping out of your classes will impact any funds you have received and initiate processes required if you choose option a. (Withdraw) or option b. (Incompletes) for your courses.

4. Military benefits
   a. Check with Dee Schmidt (Registrar’s Office) to see how stopping out of your classes will impact any VA benefits you have received.
   b. Provide Dee with a copy of your individual orders (needed to hold MSU email account open while deployed).
