

Graduate Project of the Year

The Commission on the Status of Women seeks to recognize excellence in graduate work pertaining to women and/or gender related issues that impact women. Submissions must be original work either submitted for academic credit during their academic career, or created by currently enrolled graduate students for the specific consideration of the Commission on this occasion.

The Commission on the Status of Women will review all submissions and select one outstanding project. The graduate recipients will be honored for their work at the annual Women of Courage and Vision recognition reception on Tuesday, March 30, 2010 as well as receive a $350 cash award.

Submission options:

1. Online submission options are available at www.mnsu.edu/csw .
2. E-mail submission form and project to jenelle.haddad@mnsu.edu.
3. In-person submission to Jenelle Haddad, Women's Center, CSU 218.

Name: _____

Email: _____

Program: _____

Project Title: _____