

Undergraduate Project of the Year

The Commission on the Status of Women seeks to recognize excellence in undergraduate creative and/or research based academic work pertaining to women and/or gender related issues. Submissions must be original work submitted for academic credit during the current academic year. Topics could include, but are by no means limited to the following themes:

- Feminist activism
- Women, body image and popular culture
- Women's autobiography
- Women, sex and identity
- Intersections among race, class, and gender
- Women's health issues
- Global feminisms
- Girls' coming of age

The Commission on the Status of Women will review all submissions and select one outstanding project. The recipient will be honored for their work at the annual Women of Courage and Vision Recognition Reception recognition reception on Tuesday, March 30, 2010 as well as receive a $350 cash award.

Submission options:

1. Online submission options are available at www.mnsu.edu/csw.
2. E-mail submission form and project to jenelle.haddad@mnsu.edu.
3. In-person submission to Jenelle Haddad, Women's Center, CSU 218.
