

Teaching with Technology Conference

Minnesota State Mankato is pleased to announce a call for presenters for the "Teaching and Technology" conference scheduled for November 7, 2008. The conference will highlight "best practices" in teaching with technology. The conference will offer an opportunity for participants to discuss timely issues related to teaching and learning with technology.

We seek proposals no later than April 14, 2008 for 45 minute sessions related to teaching and learning with technology. Presenters may also submit proposals for dual-sessions for topics that may require more than 45 minutes. Sessions will be identified as Novice or Advanced. Student Panels are encouraged.

If you are interested in proposing a session please complete the form below. Print the form and then submit it to the program committee by mail or email.

Presenters will be notified no later than the first week of May. Suggested topics may include (but are not limited to):

- Impact/use of technology in teaching and learning
- Philosophical and pedagogical issues in teaching and technology
- Specific best practices in teaching and learning with technology
- My favorite technology tool and how it helps teaching and learning
- Tips for beginning online teachers
- Pod/Vod-casting
- Hybrid classes--blending online and face-to-face
- Do I want to make the switch from face-to-face to online?
