Minnesota State Mankato Senior Awarded Zonta Club Scholarship

Minnesota State senior Olivia Robinson (Business Management, ‘17) was recently selected as a finalist for the Zonta International Jane M. Klausman Women in Business Scholarship. Olivia received a $1,000 award from the Zonta Club of Mankato and was a runner-up internationally.

The Zonta International Jane M. Klausman Women in Business Scholarships are open to college women enrolled in at least the second year of an undergraduate program through the final year of a Master’s program in business, leading to a business management career. The program is designed to encourage women to enter careers and to seek leadership positions in business-related fields in their communities and throughout the world. Twelve scholarships for $7,000 are awarded at the international level. The local applicant selected for consideration by Zonta International receives a $1,000 award from the Zonta Club of Mankato and is also considered for a $1,000 scholarship at the multi-state district level.

Olivia plans to use her awarded funds to cover her tuition for her last undergraduate semester at MSU, Mankato. After graduation, she will pursue law school. She plans to go into sports and entertainment law, representing athletes, sports teams, and entertainers.

Olivia is a Beta Gamma Sigma “Best in Business” Lifetime Member, and attended the Global Leadership Summit on behalf of Minnesota State University. She is also a member of the Honors Program, a Promoting Respect Workshop Facilitator with the Greater Mankato Diversity Council, and the Women’s Golf Representative on the Student Athlete Advisory Committee.

Olivia utilized resources in the Office of University Fellowships in her pursuit of this award.

For more information on the Office of University Fellowships at Minnesota State Mankato, see www.mnsu.edu/fellowships.

For more information on the Zonta Club of Mankato, see http://www.zontamankato.org/.

For more information on Zonta International, see http://www.zonta.org/.