DATE OF NOTICE: February 24, 2010

POSITION: Graduate Assistant, Psychology Department
Federal Work Study/Departmental Positions

DATE OF APPOINTMENT: August 23, 2010, and as vacancies occur throughout current fiscal year.

APPLICATION DEADLINE: Priority consideration will be given to applications received by March 15, 2010. Review of applications will continue until positions are filled.

SALARY RANGE: $4,500 - $9,000 + tuition stipend. Resident tuition rate applies for non-residents.

RESPONSIBILITIES:
To serve as research assistants, or teaching one three or four-credit course during the Fall or Spring Semesters, 2010-2011, or assisting instructors of large lecture classes.

QUALIFICATIONS:
Applicants must be currently enrolled in the Psychology M.A. Program, School Psych. doctoral program or accepted for admission to the program beginning Fall of 2010. No assistantship will be awarded to anyone: (a) with GRE scores total of 900 or less, or (b) working 20 or more hours per week.

OTHER CONSIDERATIONS:
Selection criteria will include high potential for graduate study as measured by undergraduate G.P.A. (if any), and G.R.E. scores, as well as relevant work and/or previous assistantship experiences (if any), and recommendations.

Demonstrated commitment to fostering a diverse working and learning environment.

RELATED INFORMATION:
Contingent on satisfactory performance and available funding, there is a possibility that this appointment may be continued beyond the initial period of employment. Graduate assistants are required to enroll for a minimum of six credits per semester at the graduate level.

Applications for graduate assistantships will be accepted throughout the academic year. The initial appointment(s) will be made from the pool of applicants available at the initial application deadline specified above. If other vacancies occur during the academic year, all applications, including those in the original pool and those received after the initial application deadline will be considered. All applications in pool become inactive on July 1, 2011.
