

1. Two Faculty/Interdisciplinary Cooperation
  - a. Compatibility
    - Different roles
    - Male/female helpful
  - b. clear authority
    - one group on tour, same expectations
  - c. Separate and combined class time
2. Maximize Free Time for Independent Exploration
3. Publicity and recruitment
  - minimum number needed for tour company / maximum number
  - minimum number needed for extended campus
  - Profesors/retirees/staff: how many? Advantages,disadvantages
4. Financial Aid Issues
  - Budget at IPO
  - Jan Marble, Theresa Kruse, Steve Smith
5. Courses
  - a. Weekly class meetings
  - b. priming the learning pump (how challenging vs. fun)
  - c. separate times for different disciplines
  - d. combined time for tour & travel issues/ culture shock
5. Setting travel expectations
  - a. Minimum rules and expectations
    - Printed rules, advice, expectations
    - morning check-in/get up early
  - b. Can't see/do everything; plan on returning
  - c. Not everyone is happy all the time
    - Everyone has down times.
  - d. Appreciate the local culture and lifestyle
    - If you wanted things like home, stay home.
  - e. Professor's Role
    - expect independent exploration / be available - cell phone
    - loco parentis?*
  - f. Group needs
    - individual choices must be weighed for impact on group
6. FAQ's
  - a. money
  - b. packing
  - c. language
  - d. fashion/clothes
7. Problems
  - a. lost passports
  - b. inebriation / late night noise / illness / morning tardiness / lost airline ticket
  - c. illness/ morning - missed daily activities / motion sickness
  - d. flirtation and casual relationships
  - e. loners (travelers who don't fit with other students)
  - f. Roommate changes / Snoring/ "uncomfortable"/A doesn't like B
  - h. cash shortage
    - i. slow walkers/smokers
  - j. complaints about hotels (adults)