Greetings listeners and friends of KMSU!

It is a clear, sunny August afternoon as I write this letter. The corn is high, the cicadas are buzzing, and there’s purple and gold everywhere around campus. Yes, Vikings training camp returns for their 50th year! It won’t be long before we’re cheering the OTHER purple and gold team we love… our very own Mavericks!! But first we have freshman move-in day and the first week of classes all happening before Labor Day. What a whirlwind of activity we’re in for around campus! And we wouldn’t have it any other way. Thank you for embracing the diversity of programming on KMSU, and for supporting what we do every day. Please attend some of the upcoming Arts & Cultural Heritage Grant-sponsored events we are involved with: Alive After Five, Rock Bend Folk Festival, and the upcoming season of the Mankato Symphony Orchestra. Also, please stop by our Ampers booth at the Minnesota State Fair on Friday or Saturday, September 4th or 5th. We would love to see you at the “Great Minnesota Get-Together”!

Yours,

Gully

FORMER KMSU STUDENTS IN THE REAL WORLD

Chelsea Carlson

KMSU Experience
2009-2010 – News reporter and album reviewer

How did KMSU influence you?
“My time at KMSU helped me feel like I belonged to a community at MSU. I had a lot of fun writing and recording stories, but more importantly I had a lot of fun during the meetings, getting to know everyone and feeling like I had a place to belong. I also got to experience the art and culture of radio in a much deeper way.”

Where are they now?
Chelsea is currently working as an AmeriCorps VISTA Leader with the Refugee Support Network in Seattle, WA. After her position at AmeriCorps ends in a few months she hopes to find a job with a non-profit working with immigrants or refugees.

Zack David

KMSU Experience
2006-2009 – Public Relations assistant, Radio a La Carte co-host, Too Hot For TV co-host, solicited underwriting

How did KMSU influence you?
“In a nut shell KMSU influenced me as a professional and technically in the skills I acquired pertaining to radio, operations, PR and more. Karen used to call me the ‘Zack of all trades’ since I used to help out with everything that I could.”

Where are they now?
Zach worked for the Peace Corps in Peru from 2011-2014 where he was a youth development volunteer working with children and adolescents in Zana for two years and was volunteer leader in the region. It’s also where met his wife. He is currently living in California where he owns a freelance music service business called Zack David Music. His work involves writing and recording custom songs for personal and business use, doing gigs, giving lessons, editing and producing podcasts, as well as a variety of other audio-related projects.
