Haec Dies                                                            William Byrd (1543 – 1623)
(sung in Latin)
This is the day that the Lord our God has made.
Sing with gladness and be joyful in this day.
Alleluia.

Und ob ich schon wanderte                                           Johannes Brahms
(1833 – 1897)
You wondrously cool forest night that I greet a thousand times
After the loud bustle of the day, oh how sweet is your rustling!
Dreamily I sink my tired limbs softly into the sheltering moss,
And I feel as if I would again be rid of all life’s insane torments.

In the secret, narrow circles you become well, you wild heart,
And a peace floats down with soft flutterings.
Dearest birdsongs, sing me softly asleep!
Insane torments, disappear again; wild heart, now “good night.”

Furusato (Traditional Japanese Folk song)                           Arr. Philip Lawson
(sung in Japanese)
The mountains where I once ran after hares,
The streams where I often went fishing;
I still dream of there now and then.
I can never forget my home country.

Son de Camaguey (Cuban Folk Song)                                   Arr. Stephen Hatfield
(sung in Spanish)
Tyler Bush, Jennessa Moeller, Percussion

The Chamber Singers                                                 David Dickau, Conductor

All His Mercies Shall Endure                                         George F. Handel
(from The Occasional Oratorio)

Kyrie                                                                Benjamin Bolster
(sung in Latin)
Lord, have mercy.
Christ, have mercy.
Lord, have mercy.

Gratias tibi                                                          Tarik O’Regan
(sung in Latin)
My God, in whom is my delight, my glory, and my trust,
I thank you for your gifts and beg you to preserve and keep them for me.
For I should not exist if it were not by your gift.

~ St. Augustine (354 – 390)

We Beheld Once Again the Stars                                      Z. Randall Stroope
(sung in Italian and Latin)
But soon it will be night. Now is the time to depart this place.
For we have seen and experienced it all. Keep moving – return to paradise.

The wings of hell’s monarch are heard nearby. We must leave quickly.

But soon it will be night. I climbed toward paradise with no thought of looking back.
I passed through a small opening and finally saw heaven and the supreme light,
And beheld once again the stars.

~ from the Divine Comedy of Dante
