BERLIN (WARNEMÜNDE), GERMANY
One of Europe's liveliest capitals, the sprawling city of Berlin is brimming with cultural landmarks. The grand neoclassical Brandenburg Gate opens onto Unter den Linden, the city's famed tree-lined boulevard that paves the way to the historical heart of Berlin, and weathered remnants of the iconic Berlin Wall recall the city's storied past. The port of Warnemünde also delights with its lovely Gothic churches, market square and seaside promenade.

KLAIPEDA, LITHUANIA
Originally founded as a fortress in the 13th century; held at times under Prussian, Swedish, Russian and German rule; and currently the third largest city in Lithuania, Klaipeda is the keeper of a truly fascinating and complex history. Scattered remnants can be found in the Old Town, where a single surviving tower of the once glorious red-brick castle remains. Today, this city is the springboard to the stunning Curonian Spit, a UNESCO World Heritage Site.

RIGA, LATVIA
Cobbled medieval streets, spacious parks and a historic Old Quarter bring a timeless feel to the ever-evolving city of Riga. The capital of Latvia and a UNESCO World Heritage Site, this lavish and vibrant metropolis has been deemed the Paris of the East.

HELSEINKI, FINLAND
Like its craggy coastline that twists daringly around picturesque bays, inlets and peninsulas, this young and cutting-edge city leaves its visitors in awe. Dynamic and captivating, Helsinki is renowned as an international design mecca, where innovative architecture overlooks spacious green parks and open-air markets. Harbor cruises float past a breathtaking backdrop of forests and villas, while the celebrated Suomenlinna, a ruined fortification spanning five islands, enchants its visitors. Nearby, resting quietly along the riverfront and lined by charming red houses, is Porvoo, Finland's second oldest town.

ST. PETERSBURG, RUSSIA
Built by Peter the Great and designed by Italian architects, St. Petersburg is truly a magical city and considered Russia's window to the West. Boasting European sophistication with an imperial flair, whimsical golden spires, pastel-colored palaces and onion domes complement the city's vast network of canals and arched bridges. The Peter and Paul Fortress; immense Winter Palace, now the Hermitage Museum; and the fabled Catherine's Palace serve as cultural treasures representing voices from the past, while Russian heritage is depicted through classical ballet pieces and traditional song and dance.

TALLINN, ESTONIA
Culturally fascinating and beautifully preserved, Tallinn is the result of avant-garde style fused with medieval charm. Red-roofed homes line cobbled streets and 14th-century churches are ornamented by powerful spires. The Guild Houses, Baroque palaces, famed Apothecary shop and exquisite Town Hall await you in this legendary city.

Shore excursions are not included. In each port of call you may select from a variety of optional shore excursions for an additional charge, some of which are referenced in the descriptions above.

Go Next will offer a unique collection of Oceania Cruises shore excursions, available for purchase approximately 4 months prior to departure.
