Go where the treasures of Italy can be savored.

Northern Italy is a feast for the senses. From the dramatic natural beauty of the Dolomites and the gently rolling hills blanketed with vineyards and lemon groves, to the quaint pastel villages dotting the shores of Lake Garda and the historic cities such as Verona, Vicenza, Milan and Venice, this region of contrasts is truly magnificent. Its beauty has inspired world-class art and music, from Shakespeare’s Verona and the breathtaking da Vinci masterpiece in Milan to the celebrated St. Mark’s Square in Venice. The moderate microclimate surrounding Lake Garda’s southern shore allows lemon trees, palm trees and cypresses to flourish. Renowned for its Parmigiano cheese and prosciutto ham, the region’s unusually fertile fields and valleys have also yielded wine and balsamic vinegar since the Middle Ages. Stimulate all of your senses as you experience this stunning, historically-rich area.

With quaint cobbled streets and pastel-colored houses, Bardolino rests near the shimmering clear waters of Lake Garda, the largest and easternmost of the Italian lakes. The lake stretches north through the foothills of the snow-covered Dolomite Mountains and south through the fertile low-lying countryside. The southern shore around Bardolino is dotted with picturesque villages, beautiful villas and gardens of semi-tropical flowers set amid vineyards and orchards of olive and lemon trees that thrive in the mild Mediterranean climate. Bardolino is a magical town on Lake Garda that makes for an unforgettable stay in Northern Italy.

Go next is dedicated to providing unique travel experiences with the ideal balance of exploration and relaxation at affordable prices.
