

Management of Hazardous Waste

Notify the Office of Environmental Health & Safety, Risk Management regarding the management of hazardous waste materials. Specific definitions and controls exist for hazardous waste materials that possess one or more of the following properties; ignitability, corrosivity, reactivity or toxicity. Management and disposal procedures are in place for the removal of hazardous waste.