INFORMAL REVIEW

Policy

Students have the right to ask an instructor for an explanation of any grade received. Grade appeals are reviewed in instances where students perceive that a final course grade is unfair, arbitrary, or capricious. Appeals must be filled within two weeks* of university notification of a final course grade. Students needing assistance at any step in appealing or filing a complaint may contact the Academic Affairs Coordinator of the Student Senate (280 Centennial Student Union; phone 389-2611). Note: Students are encouraged to talk to their instructors before beginning this process to attempt to resolve the matter informally. Student complaints and concerns about issues OTHER than final grades are to be resolved under the Student Complaints and Grievances policy.

Procedures

Grade appeals will be reviewed in the following manner.

Step 1.

- A written petition will be submitted by the student to the instructor of the class. This petition should contain the nature of the problem, relevant information which supports the appeal, and the remedy sought. The student should retain a copy for his/her records.
- Within two weeks, the instructor will respond to the student in writing. If the student is not satisfied with the response provided by the instructor, he/she may proceed to Step 2.
- In cases where the departmental chairperson is the faculty member whose grade is being appealed, the student shall proceed to Step 3.

Step 2.

- A written petition will be submitted by the student to the departmental chairperson with a copy to the instructor. This petition should contain the nature of the problem, a statement that an attempt was made to resolve this issue directly with the instructor, relevant information which supports the appeal, and the remedy sought. The student should retain a copy for his/her records. The student, instructor, and chairperson may meet to discuss the complaint, if necessary.
- Within two weeks*, the departmental chairperson will respond to the student in writing with a copy to the instructor of the class. If the student is not satisfied with the response provided by the chairperson, he/she may proceed to Step 3.

Step 3.

- A written petition will be submitted by the student to the dean of the college with a copy to the departmental chairperson and instructor of the class. This petition should contain the nature of the problem, a statement that an attempt was made to resolve this issue directly with both the instructor and the departmental chairperson, all relevant information which supports the appeal, and the remedy sought. The student should retain a copy for his/her records.

- Copies of all materials presented in this matter shall be forwarded to the dean, upon request, by the chairperson.
- ~~The dean may review the grade appeal personally, or may designate one or more college faculty members to review the grade appeal. convene a college grade appeals committee which shall serve in an advisory capacity to the dean. The manner of appointment and number of members on the College Grade Appeals Committee shall be determined within the college. The chairperson of the College Grade Appeals Committee shall be appointed by the dean.~~
- Within two weeks*, the ~~dean or designee will make a decision, and chairperson of the College Grade Appeals Committee will make a recommendation to the dean who~~ will respond to the student in writing of the decision reached, with a copy to the instructor and departmental chairperson. If the student is not satisfied with the response provided by the dean/designee, he/she may proceed to Step 4.

Faculty Right to Appeal. The instructor of the class who is not satisfied with action at either Step 2 or 3 may appeal by submitting a written statement to the dean if the complaint involves the departmental level or Vice President for Academic and Student Affairs if the complaint involves the college level.

Step 4.

- For undergraduate student complaints, a written petition will be submitted by the student to the Vice President for Academic and Student Affairs with a copy to the instructor of the class, departmental chairperson, and dean.
- For graduate student complaints, a written statement ~~petition will~~ be submitted by the student to the Dean of Graduate Studies and Research with a copy to the instructor of the class, departmental chairperson, and dean.
- For either situation, the petition should contain the nature of the problem, a statement that an attempt was made to resolve this issue according to Steps 1 through 3, all relevant information which supports the appeal, and the remedy sought. The student should retain a copy for his/her records.

Use of ~~the~~ University Grade Appeals Panel Committee.

During consideration at Step 4, the Vice President for Academic and Student Affairs/designee will may convene ~~the~~ University Grade Appeals Panel Committee which shall serve in an advisory capacity. This panel Committee shall consist of ~~a pre-selected panel comprised of~~ a faculty member from ~~each~~ college other than the college from which the grade appeal originates selected by the Faculty Association and one student from ~~each college~~ college other than the college from which the grade appeal originates.
