There are approximately 70 general use bulletin boards within the hallways of the academic buildings, Centennial Student Union and Residential Life. No more than one poster per event may be hung on each board with either staples or push pins. General Maintenance Workers will remove posters from general use bulletin boards in academic buildings after the event or within one month of posting. The Centennial Student Union will accept up to six posters for one event and CSU staff members will then hang items on bulletin boards. Residential Life will accept eight posters for each event (two in each residence hall.)
