Program Description:

Economics aims to provide the student with the basic materials and tools of analysis used to understand our present economic system, and to organize data for decision-making purposes in both short and long-range planning. It is designed to help those contemplating business or other careers as well as those who are preparing to teach in the social studies.

Admission Requirements:

Students enrolling in ECON 300-400 level courses must be admitted to the program. Admission is granted by the department. Minimum university admission requirements are:

- a minimum of 32 earned semester credit hours.
- a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.00 ("C").

Contact the department for application procedures.

Advising:

You are expected to meet with your advisor on a regular basis to ensure courses are taken in an order that will lead to successful completion of the degree.

Department faculty advisors meet with students and sign the application forms when students declare the Economics major

A complete listing of program faculty, policies, and course descriptions is available in the undergraduate bulletin.

Term 8 Notes:

ECON 482W is a time-intensive writing and research course. A minimum of a "C" grade is required in each of the five courses that are prerequisites for the course, ECON 207, ECON 301, ECON 355, ECON 356, and ECON 462.

To be eligible for graduation with a bachelor's degree, a student is required to have completed at least 40 credits of upper-division (300-400) courses. Following this degree map, a BS major may have earned 39 credits in upper-division courses. Before you begin Term 8, count how many upper-division credits you have earned. This should include ECON 482W. If that number falls short of the 40-credit requirements, you should consider taking one upper division course in either General Education or Economics Electives.

PROGRAM NOTES

A minimum cumulative grade point average of 2.0 is required for all courses taken in the required economics core courses and required economics electives for the economics BS major.

The BS major should complete 68 credits in the following areas:

* Required Core Courses in Economics (28 credits): ECON 201, 202, 207, 301, 355, 356, 420, 462, and 482W

* Required Unrestricted Elective Courses in Economics (9 credits)

* Business Foundation Requirements (31 credits): MATH 112, IT 101, ACCT 200, BLAW 200, MGMT 200, ACCT 210, MRKT 310, MGMT 330, MGMT 346, FINA 362
