Program Description:

The Corrections major prepares students for careers in Corrections with a sociological framework that incorporates multiculturalism, social class, gender, and critical transformation of the field.

Students will learn research-supported practices in the field of Corrections. They will gain a sound understanding of the criminal justice system, a vision of what it could become, and the desire, skills, and knowledge to make the ideal a reality. Throughout coursework, students will demonstrate a commitment to the principles of social justice, respect, support and belief in the inherent dignity and worth of all individuals. The Mission of the Corrections Program is to promote a humane Correctional system that is fair and just.

Admission Requirements:

Admission to major is granted by the department. Minimum university admission requirements are:
 a minimum of 32 earned semester credit hours
 a minimum cumulative GPA of 2.00 (C)

Advising:

You are expected to meet with your advisor on a regular basis to ensure courses are taken in an order that will lead to successful completion of the degree.
