NOTE: The University is asking you to provide information which includes private and/or confidential information under state and federal law. The University is asking for this information in order to process your application.

You are not legally required to provide the information the University is requesting; however the University may not be able to effectively process your application if you do not provide sufficient information. With some exceptions, unless you consent to further release of private information, access to this information will be limited to school officials, including faculty who have legitimate educational interests in the information. Under certain circumstances, federal and state laws authorize a release of private information without your consent, - to other schools in which you seek or intend to enroll, or are enrolled, if you are first notified of the release; - to federal, state or local officials for purposes of program compliance, audit or evaluation; - as appropriate in connection with your application for, or receipt of, financial aid; - to your parents, if your parents claim you as a dependent student for tax purposes; - if the information is sought with a subpoena, court order, or otherwise permitted by other state or federal law, and - to an institution engaged in educational research or accrediting agency.

The first part of the Student Right-to-Know and Campus Security Act requires colleges and universities to compile and release institution-wide graduation rates for all students, with more detailed statistical information submitted on the graduation rates of athletes. This information is available in the MSU Undergraduate Bulletin. Part II of the act, entitled the Campus Crime Awareness and Campus Security Act of 1990, requires colleges and universities to distribute annually to all current employees and students as well as to applicants for enrollment or employment two types of information: 1) a description of policies and crime prevention educational programs relating to campus security, and 2) statistics concerning the occurrence of certain categories of crimes. Institutions are also required to issue timely warnings to the campus community about criminal activities representing a continued safety threat to aid in crime prevention. This information is available in the University's "Partners in Safety" at University Security, 222 Wiecking Center, (389-2111).

Placement & Occupational Outlook for Majors are available at www.mnsu.edu/cdc.
