

MinnesotaCare, 2003

MinnesotaCare was created as a health insurance program to cover the poorest of the working poor, families whose employers do not offer insurance or can only offer it at prices that are unaffordable.

Data source: Minnesota Department of Human Services
 © 2006 Center for Rural Policy and Development