An open discussion on a problem facing our community.

Panels include:
- High school students
- College students
- Other community youth as well as alcohol abuse experts, law enforcement, medical counseling, business and

Keynote Speaker
Susanne Williams, Asst. to the President, MSU Moorhead

Susanne Williams leads a collaboration formed among Minnesota State University Moorhead, Concordia University, and the City’s community and technical college to minimize the culture of heavy drinking.

All community members invited; no reservations necessary.