

Are you ready to join Lambda Pi Eta?

Deadline for dues and forms are due one month before commencement ceremonies. Unfortunately, honor cords may not arrive for the ceremony if your application is received after the order due date.

Lambda Pi Eta is the nationally recognized Speech Communication honor society.

- Lambda Pi Eta is fully accredited by the Association of College Honor Societies (ACHS). The National Communication Honor Society was established in 1985 and now has 300 chapters and more than 5,000 members.
- There is no waiting and you are a member immediately upon submitting an unofficial transcript verifying your credits and GPA in Speech Communication to the Treasurer (or to the chapter advisor) and filling out this form.
- At graduation, you will be entitled to wear red and white honor cords (compliments of the speech Communication department). In the graduation program you are identified with the following notation:
- Members of Lambda Pi Eta, A National honorary Speech Communication Society, wear scarlet and white honor cores. Membership in Lambda Pi Eta is conferred upon Speech Communication majors who exhibit superior scholarship and leadership potential.

Attach documentation that verifies that you are: (an unofficial transcript is acceptable)

- Are you registered MSU student in good standing?
- Are you a speech communication major, or have a commitment to the field of communication?
- completed 60 semester credits at MSUM?
- completed 12 semester credits in the Department of Speech Communication?
- Have an overall GPA of 3.0 at MSUM? What is your (MSUM) GPA _____?
- Have a GPA of 3.25 in communication courses? What is your communication GPA? _____?
- What name do you want printed on your certificate of membership? PRINT NEATLY!

- When do you plan to march in graduation ceremonies—MONTH AND YEAR please.

Attach all documentation, fill out this form, and make a check payable to MSU Lambda Pi Eta for $30.00 for membership and dues. (You must write a separate check to the Speech Communication Club for $10.00 if joining Speech Communication Club too.) Give all the forms and the check/s to:
