Nachreiner leads Maverick volleyball team to sweep of North Dakota

MANKATO — Ashley Nachreiner's 17-kill performance helped lead the Minnesota State University volleyball team to a 3-0 win over North Dakota Saturday at Bresnan Arena.

The Mavericks beat UND by scores of 30-16, 30-14, 30-13. They finished the season 19-8 with a 7-5 North Central Conference record.

Nachreiner's game-high 17 kills put her career total at 924, 76 shy of becoming the sixth member of the MSU 1,000 kills club. Senior Megan Stroud chipped in with 11 kills and senior Stef Sandstrom had a match-high 42 set assists.

MSU's postseason schedule will be decided Monday morning.
