Mavs pick up fifth WCHA win

BUFFALO — Four different players scored goals for Minnesota State University Saturday in a 4-1 women's hockey win over St. Cloud State.

Ashley Young scored MSU's initial goal in the second period and was assisted by Kala Buganski and Maggie Fisher.

Fisher then went on to score the second goal off a pass from Young.

Teammate Nina Tikkinen also scored in the second, with Emmi Leinonen and Emilia Andersson getting assists.

The Huskies answered near the end of the frame, but MSU's Ariel Mackley capped the scoring at 8:30 of the third.

Paige Thunder had 30 saves for the Mavericks (8-16-4, 5-15-4 in WCHA).

Ashley Nixon had 29 saves for the Huskies (13-14-3, 10-12-2 in WCHA).
