Two Mavs in women's hockey championships

MANKATO — Two members of the Minnesota State women's hockey team are competing in the International Ice Hockey Federation Women's World Championships this week in Hameenlinna, Finland.

Sophomore forward Nina Tikkinen is playing for Finland, and freshman defenseman Emilia Andersson is playing for Sweden.

The event began Saturday and runs through Sunday.

Tikkinen has three goals in two preliminary-round wins for Finland, which will face Canada on Wednesday and the United States on Thursday.

Andersson is even in plus-minus as Sweden went 1-1 in preliminary play. Sweden will play Kazakhstan on Wednesday and Russia on Thursday.
