MSU roundup

MSU sweeps Southwest Baptist

BOLIVAR, MO. — Minnesota State notched a pair of baseball wins Friday, defeating Southwest Baptist 6-1 and 10-4.

Zach Danelson led MSU in the opener, going 3 for 4 with two homers.

Eric Austvold and Kosuke Hattori also drove in runs.

Jon Bjelland pitched a five-inning 3-hitter to get the win.

The Mavericks (5-1) scored six runs in the first three innings in the second game.

Josh Simon went 3 for 4 with 6 RBIs, and Kyle Hoover added a pair of hits.

Tyler Sander pitched an inning of scoreless relief to get the win. Patrick Lenton pitched the final three innings, fanning six.
