

Sports

Greene, Secott receive NCC baseball honors

SIOUX FALLS, S.D. — Senior third baseman Ryan Greene and junior pitcher Dane Secott have been honored as North Central Conference baseball players of the week for their performances in six Minnesota State victories last week.

Greene, the NCC co-player of the week, hit .579 last week, with two doubles, five homers and 13 RBIs. He ranks second on the team with nine home runs and 42 RBIs.

Secott, the NCC co-pitcher of the week, saw action in two games last week with one start and one relief appearance. He did not allow a run in nine innings, giving up three hits and four walks with 12 strikeouts. The right-hander is 6-1 with 3.91 earned-run average with 57 strikeouts in 46 innings.

Minnesota State baseball players Ryan Greene (left) and Dane Secott earned North Central Conference honors for their performances in six MSU victories last week.

The Mavericks (31-9), who have won 12 straight, play a nonconference doubleheader Wednesday at Southwest Minnesota State.