MSU Earns Sole Possession of Regular Season Championship

By virtue of Winona State's 80-69 victory over St. Cloud State Saturday evening, the Minnesota State men's basketball team earned the 2009-10 Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference Regular Season Championship.

The Mavericks and Huskies entered Saturday tied for the league lead; however Minnesota State downed the University of Mary 75-63 late Saturday afternoon. Minnesota State junior win Jefferson Mason recorded his 11th double-double of the season as he scored a team-high 17 points and hauled in a game-high 12 rebounds.

The championship marks MSU's fourth league title (North Central Conference or NSIC) under head coach Matt Margenthaler and is the 17th league title in program history.

News Flash.....

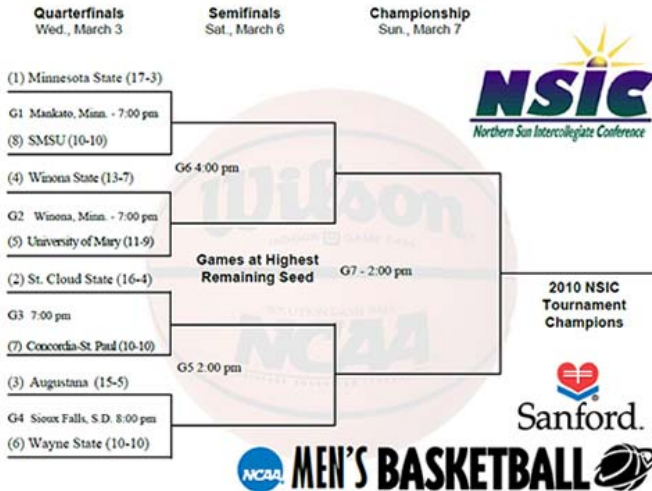

The MSU men's basketball team at 24-3 (17-3 in the NSIC) is still ranked #1 in the NCAA Central Regional poll. Mesa State College, Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (RMAC) Champions (22-4 and 16-3 in the RMAC) are ranked #2. This week's poll will be released Wednesday.
