Senior Nick Smith posted a 4-2 record at the 25th annual Kaufman-Brand Open in Omaha, Neb., Saturday, placing fourth in the 125-pound elite bracket. Both of Smith's losses came at the hands of Division I wrestlers.

Senior Jason Rhoten and sophomore Brady Wilson also placed fourth in the 157-pound and heavyweight divisions, respectively. Efrain Ayala went 3-2 in the 141-pound elite bracket and Willy Mekeel went 2-2 in the 149-pound elite bracket.

The Kaufman-Brand Open is the largest one-day collegiate tournament in the country, featuring more than 700 wrestlers from 40 schools representing all three NCAA divisions.

The next competition for the Mavericks takes place on Dec. 2 in Cedar Falls, Iowa, at the University of Northern Iowa Open.
