

The Free Press
D
Saturday,
November 22, 2008
www.mankatofreepress.com

GOPHERS, PAGE D2
Minnesota plays last game at Dome today

Sports

Minnesota State goes 1-2 at Hawkeye Invite

IOWA CITY, IOWA — The Minnesota State University wrestling team opened its dual-meet season Friday, compiling a 1-2 record at the Hawkeye Invitational.

MSU opened day with a 26-10 loss to Coe College. Sophomore Tommy Abbott (149 pounds), senior Tim Matheson (174) and sophomore Pat Mahan (197) each won their matches for the Mavericks.

MSU rebounded with a 33-18 win over Iowa Central.

Sophomore Andy Forstner started the competition off with a win at 125 before junior Travis Elg (141), Abbott

(149) and Darren Olsen (157) delivered three straight pins.

Matheson and Mahan also recorded wins.

The Mavericks finished the day off with a 45-3 loss to Division I University of Iowa. Mahan had the only MSU win, defeating Luke Lofthouse 5-4 at 197 pounds. MSU is off until Dec. 7 when it participates in the UNI Open at Cedar Falls, Iowa.

(For complete wrestling boxscores, go to www.mankatofreepress.com and click on sports scores).