Two Mavs honored

Minnesota State University wrestler John Koons and men's track and field high-jumper Jim Dilling have been named North Central Conference Players of the Week in their sports.

Koons, a senior 184-pounder, did not give up an offensive point in posting a 4-0 record at the

Shippensburg Duals in Pennsylvania over the weekend.

Koons defeated
Martin Porter of Delaware Valley 13-0, Mike Walsh of

Limestone 17-0, Nate Jones of Carson-Newman 17-2 and Chris Gibb of West Liberty State 11-0.
The only two points Koons allowed came on escapes.

Dilling, a junior, won the high jump at the Jack Johnson Minnesota Classic with a leap of 7-feet-4½. He bested a field of 10
NCAA Division I competitors with a jump that was nearly six inches higher than his nearest competitor.
