 Minnesota State University, Mankato Student Support Services (SSS) is asking you to provide information which includes private information under state and federal law. SSS is asking for this private information so that we can process your application for your admission to our program. This information will be used to evaluate your application for admission to determine whether you are a suitable candidate for admission into our program. You are not legally required to provide the information SSS is requesting, and you may refuse to provide some or all of the information requested. However, SSS may not be able to consider your application if you do not provide sufficient information. With some exceptions, unless you consent to further release of private information, access to this information will be limited to the individuals involved in our admission process (including the Office of Student Financial Services, Registrar's and Disability Services Office) and the advisors and clerical personnel of the program. However, federal and state laws do authorize release of private information without your consent to: school officials who have legitimate educational interests in the information; the U.S. Dept. of Education for the purposes of program compliance, audit or evaluation; the juvenile justice system, if you are a juvenile, and the information is necessary, prior to adjudication, to determine the juvenile justice system's ability to serve you; an alleged victim of sexual assault, if you are the alleged perpetrator of the assault, and the release is of the result of a disciplinary proceeding against you related to the alleged crime; your parents, if your parents claim you as a dependent student for tax purposes; a court, grand jury, or state or federal agency, if the information is sought with a subpoena; appropriate persons in connection with an emergency, if necessary to protect your health or safety or the health or safety of others; if required by a court order, or permitted by other state or federal law.

Student Support Services is a federally funded program by the U.S. Department of Education in cooperation with Minnesota State University, Mankato. Minnesota State University, Mankato is an equal opportunity educator and employer.
