To all MSU 2012 Study Abroad Students:

The International Programs Office annually sponsors a photo contest for all MSU students who have studied abroad. We invite all returned students to participate in the contest and to help promote it to your fellow traveling scholars.

Enter the 2013 Study Abroad Photo Contest

Submit your photos from your study abroad experience for a chance to win prizes!

Prizes are awarded for each category as follows:

- Contemporary Issues: Photos of issues affecting people’s lives and society today relating to social, environmental, health, economy, or other such areas.

- Daily Life: Photos that document the extraordinary or unseen in the ordinary or cast a new perspective on everyday life.

- Landscapes: Photos of urban, rural, or natural settings representative of the host country and/or your study abroad experience.

- People/portraits: Of the host country and/or your study abroad experience.

You must include captions on your photo(s) to explain or enhance the judges understanding of the photo.

Rules and Regulations:

- Entrants must be MSU students/faculty who studied abroad sometime during 2012.

- All entries must include an 8” x 10” print plus a digital entry. Hard copies should be dropped off at the IPO, CSU 250. The digital copy(ies) should be sent via e-mail to michelle.sampson@mnsu.edu.

- Each entrant must complete an entry form for each photo. The forms are attached with this email or are available at the IPO, CSU 250.

- Put your name and identifying information on the back of your print entries.

- Each entrant is allowed to submit one photo per category for a total of four entries.

- A panel of impartial judges appointed by the International Programs Office will judge photographs.

- Photos submitted become property of the International Programs Office and will be used to help promote study abroad to other MSU students.

Photos will be displayed at the 2013 Study Abroad Fair on Tuesday, February 12 in CSU 123.
