Chair: Stephen Wilcox
Chan Lee, Joseph Reising, Roger Severns, Richard Swanson, Harold Thiewes, Michael Young

The objective of the department is to prepare students for entry-level positions in finance, insurance, or real estate. Four areas of emphasis are available within this major.

The undergraduate finance program deals with the theory, organization and operations of the financial system from both the social and managerial perspectives. Students are expected to develop expertise in making organizational and personal judgments and decisions involving financial data. Additionally, students present their analyses in both written and oral form.

Students may select and complete one or more of the following emphases: Corporate Finance, Institutional Finance, Financial Planning and Insurance, Investment Analysis.

Admission to a Major in the College of Business
Admission to a major in the College of Business typically occurs at the beginning of the student's junior year.
