

Global Education Advisory Council Minutes
April 20, 2018

Attendance: Hans-Peter deRuiter, Robert Fleischman, Chandler Holland, Erica Johnson, Brice Matthews, Rama Mohapatra, Steven Powell, Guadalupe Quintero, Richard Robbins, Anne Dahlman, Nancy O'Brien, and Cheryl Azarbod

Curriculum Grants (Brigette Cooper and Shane Bowyer) were approved.

Faculty Led Program funding requests were all approved with the following comments/exceptions:

Approved with Armentrout and Shellum/Jones program request to reconsider travel dates since the proposal states the dates of finals week in Spring 2019.

Email to all applicants will include a sentence that states "new guidelines will be considered for next year."

No requirement on the number of students a funded program must have enrolled this time around.

GEAC will consider more specific criteria in order to qualify for funding at the first GEAC meeting in the Fall of 2018 (e.g., connection to university/unit strategic priorities).

Cuba is a Level 3 and an email will be sent out requesting the additional travel form be submitted. The Cuba faculty-led program will be re-evaluated at a later date.

Travel Grants (Shane Bowyer and Hans-Peter de Ruiter) were approved.
