

WORK ZONES

TYPE:

Diversity

GROUP SIZE:

Any

MATERIALS:

Pens/Pencils and copies of the provided worksheet

INTRODUCTION:

Creating a work environment that embraces individual similarities and differences is essential to job satisfaction and team productivity. This activity will engage us in a small group process that will help us evaluate our work place environment.

DESCRIPTION:

Have group members work in small groups to complete the provided worksheet. Ask small groups to report back and finish the activity with a group discussion using the provided processing questions.

PROCESSING:

- What was it like to fill out the worksheet in your small group?
- What (if any) conflicts arose?
- How did you feel when you heard other groups presenting their ideal work place?
- How do you feel about the ideas/comments/suggestions shared by other groups?

OUTCOMES:

- Reflect on our current work environment
- Heightens sensitivity to others needs
- Builds cohesiveness

REMEMBER:

- Introduce the exercise
- Explain it thoroughly
- Process it completely
