Dropping vs. Withdrawing from a Class

Video time: 0:16 - 0:51

Dropping a class means that the student has successfully removed the class from their schedule on e-services within the allocated window on e-services. Dropping a class is only allowed the first few days of class and will not appear on a student's transcript.

Withdrawing from a class means that a student is no longer in the course, but the course counts as "attempted" and a grade of "W" is given. A withdrawal is denoted as a "W" on a transcript but will not be calculated into the student's cumulative GPA. However, it does factor into a student's standing with regards to Academic Standing for Undergraduate Students Policy.

Withdrawing from a Class

 Withdrawing from a course means that a student is no longer in the course, but the course counts as "attempted" and a grade of "W" is given. A withdrawal is denoted as a "W" on a transcript but will not be calculated into the student's cumulative GPA. However, it does factor into a student's standing with regards to Academic Standing for Undergraduate Students Policy.

Implications of Withdrawing from a Class

• Cumulatively, if a student has below a 1.7 GPA or a 66.67% completion rate, they can no longer take classes with the university. Only a student's college GPA and completion rate are factored in, high school classes are not considered.

• Selective colleges could view the "W" negatively on the student's transcript when considering the student for admission or scholarships.

What Should Students Do?

Video Time: 2:17 - 3:13

Step 1: Meet with Your High School Guidance Counselor

• Withdrawing from a class has implications for both high school and college enrollment. It is important that you meet with your high school guidance counselor to ensure dropping from a class will not affect your high school graduation or GPA.

Step 2: Consider Your Options

- Ask yourself what the purpose of the course is.
 - How does the course fit in with their academic goals?
- Depending on your grade in the course as well as where you are in the semester, you could have time to improve your grade.
 - Come up with a plan to make good study habits or partner with someone in the class to study.
 - Meet with your teacher to explore opportunities for extra credit or ways to make up points in the course.

Step 3: Finalize Your Decision

o If you have decided to withdraw from the course, let your school counselor and teacher know.
