Chair: Doran Hunter, Ph.D.

Abdalla Battah, Ph.D.; Jeff Bumgarner, Ph.D.; Sue Burum, J.D.; Scott Granberg-Rademacker, Ph.D.; Doran Hunter, Ph.D.; Tom Inglot, Ph.D.; Avra Johnson, Ph.D.; Eiji Kawabata, Ph.D.; Joe Kunkel, Ph.D.; William Lewinski, Ph.D.; Mark Robbins, Ph.D.; Fred Slocum, Ph.D.; Tamara Tucker Wilkins, Ph.D.; Jackie Vieceli, Ph.D.

Political Science, with its well-balanced curriculum and diverse and experienced faculty, offers two graduate programs for students pursuing academic and professional interests dealing with public policy questions and issues.

Graduates of these programs are successfully pursuing a variety of challenging careers. Many occupy important positions with federal, state or local units of government. Others who have gone on to receive doctorates are teaching political science at colleges and universities, consulting, or doing policy analysis with large businesses and organizations. A large number are working in private enterprises, and several have pursued successful careers in practical and electoral politics.

Admission. The GRE is not required for admission to any of these programs.

POLITICAL SCIENCE, MA
(Thesis Plan - 34 credits)
(Alternate Plan Paper - 34 credits)

The Master of Arts in Political Science (MAPS) is intended both for those who desire to eventually pursue a Ph.D. in Political Science and those who desire a terminal degree. The MAPS is primarily a generalist degree in political science which also provides a wide range of possibilities for specialization or for interdisciplinary work. The student, in consultation with a faculty advisor, plans a program of study reflecting the student's specific interests.

Admission Requirements for the MAPS (Master of Arts in Political Science) are:

1. An undergraduate GPA of at least 3.0 on a 4.0 scale;
2. A baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university;
3. At least 9 credits of undergraduate political science coursework. The requirement for 9 credits of undergraduate political science courses may be waived if the applicant can show relevant work related or other experiences that provide the necessary background to pursue graduate work in political science; and
4. When students do not meet the normal admission requirements, they may be recommended for admission by the department subject to removal of deficiencies or other conditions.

Required Core (7 credits)
POL 600 Research Methods (3)
POL 611 Orientation for Graduate Students (1)
POL 650 Seminar: Political Theory (3)

A minimum of 12 of the remaining credits must be Political Science.

Required Electives (maximum 21 -26 credits)
Choose any 500/600 level elective courses selected in consultation with an advisor.

Required Written Comprehensive and Oral Exams

Required Thesis or Alternate Plan Paper
POL 694 Alternate Plan Paper (1-2)
POL 699 Thesis (3-6)

At least 17 of the 34 credits must be in 600 level classes. A research tool of either a reading knowledge of a foreign language or an advanced statistics or other advanced research course is required but does not count toward the 34 credits required for the MAPS. The research tool must be approved by the student's committee.

MASTER OF PUBLIC ADMINISTRATION
(Thesis Plan - 34 credits)
(Alternate Paper Plan - 34 credits)

This program is designed for persons already in or preparing to enter public service. The program is designed to enable the student to perform management or staff functions in such areas as finance, budget analysis and personnel management. Students are prepared with a knowledge of political and legal processes of government and with an appreciation for managerial decision-making skills required by public agencies. Students may choose between the Thesis Plan and the Alternate Plan. The Thesis Plan requires 34 credits (including credits taken for the thesis, but not including the research tool). The Alternate Plan requires 34 (not including the research tool) credits along with the submission of an alternate plan paper written as a part of the requirements of a designated course. For either plan, 18 credits of core courses are required.

Admission Requirements

1. A minimum GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale for the last 2 years of undergraduate coursework, OR; By using other factors (e.g. promising public or private sector work experience), demonstrate that the program can be successfully completed; and
2. A baccalaureate degree from an accredited college or university; and
3. All students need a reasonable background knowledge in government and quantitative methods. In some cases, the student's advisor may require that knowledge and skill deficiencies be remedied.

Required Core (18 credits)

POL 600 Research Methods (3)
POL 606 Organization Theory (3)
POL 622 Seminar: Theory & Pract. Public Administration (3)
POL 662 Human Resource Management (3)
POL 663 Budget & Fiscal Management (3)
POL 665 Seminar: Bureaucracy & Administrative Process (3)

Required Electives (10-15 credits)

Choose any 500/600 level electives selected in consultation with an advisor. Seven credits must be at the 600 level.

Required Thesis or Alternate Plan Paper

POL 694 Alternate Plan Paper (1-2)
POL 699 Thesis (3-6)

Written comprehensive and oral exams are required. An oral defense of the thesis is required.

Required Proficiency in Advanced Research Methods:

Students must demonstrate proficiency in an advanced research methods area. The research requirement may be satisfied by taking POLS 669 Sem: Public Policy Analysis or, with the approval of the student's advisor, by taking some other advanced research course or by demonstrating a foreign language competency. These credits may not be applied towards the master's degree.

Extended Learning. The program is offered through extended learning in the Twin Cities. The extended learning program and its requirements are the same as the on-campus program described immediately above. The Department is committed to offering each of the core courses at least once every two years.

JURIS DOCTOR - MASTER OF PUBLIC
ADMINISTRATION DUAL DEGREE PROGRAM
(Thesis Plan - 34 credits)
(Alternate Plan Paper - 34 credits)

The dual degree program allows students interested in both law and public administration to concurrently enroll in the Juris Doctor (JD) program at William Mitchell College of Law and in the Master of Public Administration program at Minnesota State University, Mankato.

Unlike a joint degree, which combines two disciplines into one course of study and results in just one degree, the dual degree allows the student to earn two degrees, each from a different institution. Upon completion of the dual degree program, the student will take fewer classes than if the student were to pursue the JD and MAPA degrees separately.

 This course is a general overview of US foreign policy institutions, processes, and politics. US Foreign Policy is examined in historical, global, and domestic contexts.

POL 535 (3) Capitalism, Nationalism, and Democracy
 This course explores the interaction of the three complex contemporary political and socioeconomic phenomena: the continuing expansion of global capitalism, the rise of national(s), and the new wave of democratization around the world. The following topics are covered and discussed in class, with references to specific country and regional examples, (1) the impact of international economic institutions and democratization, (2) new forms of political participation in emerging democracies, (3) cultural and ethnic determinants of democratization, (4) problems of economic inequality in new democracies, (5) social and gender issues of democratic transitions, and (6) the relationship between democratic expansion and world peace.

POL 536 (3) International Political Economy
 Focusing on patterns, processes, and problems of international trade, monetary, technological, and investment relations, this course examines the roles played by key government organization in managing conflict and cooperation among states.

POL 537 (3) International Conflict Resolution
 This interdisciplinary proseminar focuses on conflict resolution in the international arena. In this course, we will discuss causes of conflict, examine approaches to the study of conflict resolution, and analyze the varieties of nonviolent strategies of conflict resolution. Special emphasis will be on the role of third party mediation. Cases (settled or ongoing) will be used to reflect on and evaluate all aspects—from conflict conditions to negotiating activities and process to outcome.

POL 539 (3) Comparative Social Policy: The Welfare State in Europe & the Americas
 This course offers a cross-national perspective on the politics of social policy and the welfare state in industrialized parts of the world, including North and South America and different regions of Europe. It also explores distinct national patterns of public policy solutions to the common contemporary problems of social security, poverty, and health care by paying close attention to both domestic factors and the forces of globalization that work to constrain government decisions. This multidimensional approach is designed to enable students to better understand how politics works in different ways to produce collective or social choices.

POL 540 (1-4) Topics in Comparative Politics

POLITICAL SCIENCE

This course explores topics in comparative politics beyond what is covered in the existing curriculum. Students study specialized topics of current importance in the field. Specific topics will change depending on the term and instructor. May be retaken with a change of topic.

POL 541 (3) Russia & Neighboring States Politics
